

ROMAN COREN (ROMAN KORENTSVIT)

Contact: romancoren@gmail.com

Lyric-dramatic tenor, leading master of the stage. The place of work: Lviv National Opera (Ukraine)

Graduated from Odessa State Conservatory (Ukraine).

Experience as a tenor of leading parts since 2010.

During the two years, from 2010 to 2012, many leading tenor parties were performed repeatedly (Radames "Aida", Jose "Carmen", Manrico "Trovatore", Cavaradossi "Tosca", Herman "The Queen of Spades", Pinkerton "Madam Butterfly", The Pretender and Jurodivy "Boris Godunov", Lensky "Eugene Onegin") in the opera houses of St. Petersburg, Yekaterinburg, Petrozavodsk, Astrakhan, Saratov, Nizhny Novgorod.

It is worth noting separately the brilliant and artistic performance three times in a row by the Herman party in Tchaikovsky's opera "The Queen of Spades" on the stage of the Ekaterinburg Opera House and a successful performance in the Radames part on the stage of the Mariinsky Theater.

Since 2012 the leading tenor of Lviv National Opera (Ukraine).

For three years in a row 2014, 2015, 2016 presented the Lviv Opera as the best performer at the Opera Festival in Wiltz (Luxembourg) in the parties of Radames, Cavaradossi and Duke. Moreover, in 2016 he sang in the part of Radames for two days in a row.

In March 2019, became the first performer of the independent Ukraine of Lohengrin part in the international production of Richard Wagner's opera "Lohengrin" as part of the "Ukrainian Breakthrough" project.

Thanks to two higher musical educations of instrumentalist and vocalist (Odessa State Conservatory), has a fast and impeccable learning of parts of any complexity. Thanks to unique hearing, is able to reproduce plays in foreign languages while maintaining the exact pronunciation, which always sounds very convincing. Perfect vocal technique allows to perform complex directorial tasks.
